“The fool says in his heart there is no God”

Psalm 14:1

“The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom”

Proverbs 1:7; 2:5; 8:13; 9:10; 15:33

“Embracing Wisdom This April Fool’s Day”

April 1st came directly after Easter this year, so it was difficult writing an article after all the writing I did last week. With that being said, I began to think about April Fool’s Day, which is April 1st and why that came to be. The Bible is rich with language about ‘the fool’ so I wondered if there was some kind of connection.

The quick answer is no. Some believe the history of April Fool’s Day goes back to sixteenth-century France when the nation changed from the Julian Calendar to the Gregorian. April 1st had been the end of a weeklong festival celebrating the coming of Spring and with it the new year. Now the new year had changed to January 1st. Some refused to make the switch, or lived in rural areas and didn’t get the word and were mocked as fools by those who made the change. There are other ideas regarding the history of April Fool’s Day, but no one really knows, and it is not really important.

In the rich tapestry of biblical wisdom literature, the themes of folly, faith, and fear are intricately woven together, offering profound insights into the human condition and our relationship with the divine. The Book of Psalms and the Book of Proverbs in particular, illuminate these themes, shaping our understanding of wisdom and our stance towards God.

The Psalms, both in Psalm 14:1 and Psalm 53:1, provide a stark contrast between wisdom and folly. The declaration that “the fool says in his heart there is no God” serves as a poignant reminder of the dangers of arrogance and denial of the divine presence. Folly, in this context, is not merely intellectual ignorance but a moral and spiritual blindness that leads one to reject the existence of God. It represents a rejection of wisdom and a failure to acknowledge the fundamental truths that underpin our existence.

The book of Proverbs also expands on this concept by emphasizing the importance of the fear of the Lord as the foundation of wisdom. The recurring refrain, “the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom,” underscores the essential relationship between reverence for God and true understanding. As I have mentioned time and time again, it doesn’t mean fear in the sense of terror, but submission before the Creator of everything that is, and was, and ever will be: the recognition of God’s sovereignty and our dependence on Him for guidance and direction.

So, the fool is one who denies God, ultimately leading to a life devoid of true wisdom and meaning. It is characterized by self-centeredness, pride, and a short-sighted pursuit of temporal pleasures. In contrast, embracing the fear of the Lord opens the door to a life of wisdom, righteousness, and reverence for God. For me, that means expanding your mind to the beauty in all things: nature, people, the universe. I imagine God as the great designer, the most prolific designer, scientist.

Wisdom is not merely intellectual knowledge or cleverness but a way of living that is grounded in faith and obedience to God. It is the path of humility, integrity, and discernment. When we align ourselves with the source of true wisdom and find guidance for navigating the complexities of life, perhaps we will eventually find purpose and fulfillment.

So, in the future, when April Fool's Day rolls around. I pray that you will think of aligning your heart with the Creator rather than getting caught up in the world's foolishness. May all our hearts be open to the transformative power of God's wisdom.

Mission Team News

For over 27 years, Serene Harbor has been providing safe, confidential services including a 24/7 hotline, safety planning, emergency shelter (including pet kennel) and outreach to victims of domestic violence.

For the month of April, we will collect items for welcome kits for those arriving at the facility. Requested donations include: hand towels, washcloths, lotion, hand soap, shampoo, deodorant, toothbrushes, toothpaste and socks for adults & children.

Members of the Pineda Presbyterian Women's Circles will sew drawstring bags to pack the smaller items. Your contributions are greatly appreciated! As the saying goes "if we all give a little, it adds up to a lot". Donation bins and a list of items needed will be placed in the Narthex and Fellowship Hall. Please contact Karen Smith or any of our Mission Team Members if you have any questions.

To whom it may concern,

We, the Board of Directors and the membership of the Vietnam and All Veterans of Brevard Inc. would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for your recent donation to our organization.

March 2024 Cuba Trip Report

Thank you, THANK YOU for your donations for our partner churches in Meneses and Iguará, Cuba!! Your cash gifts bought more than $400.00 of over the counter medicines and supplies. That, added to your physical gifts of yarn, school supplies, more OTC meds, left-over prescription meds, tuna, and mac & cheese filled 4 large suitcases, several weighing nearly 50 pounds. God's timing was perfect: the church in Iguará only had a few tablets of ibuprofen and acetaminophen left from the supplies you sent in September, 2023.

Life in Cuba is very hard right now and many people do not have enough money to purchase adequate food. Retirees receive a pension of 1,500 CPs (cuban pesos) a month, which doesn't go far: rice costs 230-300 pesos/lb, black beans 400/lb, coffee 300/lb, pork 500/lb, 1 liter of cooking oil costs 1,000 pesos! Both towns have a polyclinic, but no medicines or supplies; neither town has an ambulance, so people must pay 15,000 cp to hire a private car to take them to the hospital in Sancti Spiritus.

The churches are still beacons of light and hope for the people. One of the most important things is to bring children to church to work with them, teach them about God, and also give them some food. The Meneses church provides 1 lunch and 4 snacks per week. Iguará also holds children's programs with prayers, a Bible story, and a snack. I found the children not only more attentive this year, but also remembering clearly other Bible stories they have heard. The church gives the children a place to belong. They are very enthusiastic, and several drop by the church after school just to spend time with Mercy or Milagros, or to be with the other children. The adolescents help in Sunday School, sometimes in the worship service, and also deliver food to the elderly - talking to them, praying with them, feeding both spirit and body. Some of the elderly send money to the church as an offering of gratitude.

Another change I saw from last year is the way the people of both churches now work as teams, instead of relying solely on Mercy and Milagros (the clerks of session who serve as lay pastors for the churches). Both sessions told me that Edelberto (pastor of Caibarién and moderator of the sessions of both churches) taught them how to be united, and that church work must be teamwork, not just one person. I saw that in action, and it was a joy to behold!

I enjoyed spending time on a fun activity with the women of both churches - something new this visit, and definitely something to do again. They loved the cards made by some of our Presbyterian Women, and were thrilled to hear that PPW set aside part of our recent Least Coin offering to purchase food and meds for their churches. Many of them sent back notes of thanks, or their completed coloring page with a note; photos of a few are included on the following pages.

The people of our partner churches send their love and prayers - and they rejoice in your love. Your care for them means so much! I hope the attached notes give you a sense of that love.
